PREACHERSVILLE.

Rumor says there will be a wedding soon.

Mr. Henry Blankenship is able to be out again. W. C. Cummins is improving. Little Victoria, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Anderson, has been quite ill.

Gross & Hutchins sold a mule to Cobb Bros., of Jessamine, for $107.50. Cobb Bros. bought three mules of A. J. Thompson for $325, one from Hiatt Stigall for $100 and a three-year-old mule from J. Wilson for $135. Corn sold at the Evans sale at 95c to $1.25 per shock.

Miss Lillie Thompson visited Miss Hallie Brown and other relatives here. James Lawrence and little daughter, Minnie, of Bee Lick, visited here last week. Mrs. John B. Anderson visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Naylor. J. M. Cross and family have returned from a visit to relatives at Brodhead.

Rev. Green Todd, pastor of the M. E. church, preached Sunday morning and evening to large crowds. His sermons were pronounced excellent by those fortunate enough to be in attendance. Quarterly meeting next Saturday, Sunday and Sunday evening. Rev. Simpson, the presiding elder, will be present.

If those ardent "free pickers" of Casey county could only get to travel over the Preachersville pike from the Stanford pike to this place, and from here to Crab Orchard in the shape the roads are now and have been in for some time, we believe they would see the error of their way. The pike to Crab Orchard from this place a few years since was the equal of any in the State.

According to the American Jewish Year Book, just published, there are 1,418,813 Jews in the United States, and of these about 750,000 are residents of the State of New York. In the year ended June 30, 1905, 118,418 Jewish immigrants came to this country, of whom more than 100,000 landed in New York. Nearly one-half of the whole Jewish population of the country lives in New York City, which is the largest Jewish city in the whole world. The statistical credits New York City with about 600,000 Jewish inhabitants, which is more than half the entire Jewish population of the German Empire. Two countries have more Jews than the United States: Russia, 5,212,805, and Austria-Hungary, 2,976,378.

A New Jersey judge decided that an angry father has no right to horse whip a youth who tries to run off with his daughter and gave him $500 of the $50,000 damages asked. Considering the satisfaction a man would experience in administering the beating and flogging them, the price put on thrashing an objectionable would-be son-in-law, is not exorbitant either. —Frankfort Journal.

NEWS NOTES.

The Peruvian Congress has approved the arbitration treaty with Italy.

In the city of New York there are 92 places of amusement open nightly.

The jury at Russellville in the case of Guy Lyon, charged with criminal assault on Mary Gladder, failed to agree. Eleven were for a 10-year sentence while the foreman was for death. The foreman was bedecked with colors and paraded around the town.

Dr. C. M. Shanley, formerly of North Dakota, but who owned a plantation near New Orleans and had done yeoman service during the yellow fever plague, succumbed to the disease through devotion to caring for the sick. The number of deaths, it is believed, will reach 500.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by all druggists.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

James H. Matheny, aged 70, and one of Marion county's best men, is dead. The State convention of D. A. R's, will meet in Danville Oct. 19 and 20 and big preparations are already made.

Gov. Beckham has raised the reward for the apprehension of the murderer of Jack Bolen at Middlesboro from $250 to $500.

J. H. Landrum, a merchant of Pittsburg, was convicted in the Laurel Circuit Court for the killing of Jeff Gelf, and was sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary.

G. W. Albright, president of the Middlesboro Law and Order League, conferred with Gov. Beckham on the criminal conditions in Bell county, which he says equal those which existed in Breathitt.

Ed Chesney, aged 20, a son of R. M. Chesney, a prominent farmer of Wayne county, fell from a tree and broke his neck. The deceased suffered from epilepsy, and it is supposed that an attack of this caused the fall.

Mrs. M. I. Russell, of Bloomington, Ill., the only woman oil operator in Kentucky, has struck a well in Wayne county, running 500 barrels. The well is 17 miles from Monticello and seven miles from any territory before developed.

The Bennett-Jellieo Coal Co., a $50,000 concern in Knox county, has started developments in the new Brush Creek coal fields. A mile railroad line is under construction to their plant, which is being built with a view of mining 1,000 tons daily.

E. W. Johnson, a merchant of Annette, Jackson county, was drowned in the South Fork of the Kentucky river at the mouth of Wolfe creek, near Booneville, Owsley county. He and the Rev. G. W. Johnson, of Annette, were returning from Breathitt county, where they had been to attend the funeral of a relative.

Hugh Moore and his seven-year-old son, Herman, were drowned in Laurel river near Bald Rock, Laurel county. They were fishing with hooks and the boy was seated on a log which overhung the water, while the father was seated on the bank of the river. The boy lost his balance and fell into the water. The father sprang into the water, which was seven or eight feet deep, to rescue him, but neither one reached the shore.

Messrs. G. A. McRoberts and W. P. Givens filed suit in the Boyle circuit court against the East Tennessee Telephone Co. for the purpose of enjoining them from cutting their farm phones out of the Danville exchange and putting them on the Junction City exchange. The plaintiffs believe that they have a vested right to remain with the Danville exchange in as much as they went to considerable expense in furnishing the wire, poles, insulators, etc., for this line. —Danville News.

Full Of Tragic Meaning

are these lines from J. H. Simmons, of Casey, Ia. "Think what might have resulted from his terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: 'I had a fearful cough that all started my night's rest. I tried everything, but nothing would relieve it, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which completely cured me.' Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases; prevents grip and pneumonia. At G. L. Penny's, Stanford, Lync Bros., Crab Orchard, 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

The Supreme Court charges for printing the record in the Caleb Powers' case was $805. On receipt of this amount the record will be placed before the court and a motion made shortly after for an early hearing, wires Attorney General Hays from Washington.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.

"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tillamore, Ontario, Canada. For sale by all druggists.

Vinol THE COD LIVER PREPARATION WITHOUT OIL

Vinol is fast superseding old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions because, without a drop of oil or disagreeable feature, it contains all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers. By our process the oil, having no value either as a medicine or food, is separated from the medicinal elements and thrown away. Unlike old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions, Vinol is deliciously palatable, agreeable to the weakest stomach, and therefore unequaled as a body builder and strength creator for old people, puny children, weak, run-down men and women, after sickness, and for all pulmonary diseases. Everything Vinol contains is named on the label.

OUR GUARANTEE—We have such faith in VINOL that if you will take it we promise if it does not benefit or cure you we will return you your money without question. We take all the risk.

THE editor of the Frankfort Journal voices our sentiments to a T when he diagnoses Terrible Teddy as follows: President Roosevelt is a great man, there can be doubt of that, but even great men have their weaknesses, and his is for doing stunts. He seems to lay awake o' nights thinking of what he must do next. In this respect he reminds one of a child, who, knowing that he is being looked at, endeavors to do all sorts of monkey shins. Yesterday Mr. Roosevelt appeared in a tennis suit and played all the afternoon with the French Ambassador, and in playing he exhibited the same strenuousness he displays in everything he goes at.

It has been found out that the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of New York, has been contributing large sums of money to republican campaign funds since 1896, in that year, however, the sum was only $15,000—a kind of petit larceny game on the widows' and orphans' fund. The company paid out $72,000 last year for luncheons for its employees.

THE Southern School Journal, published at Lexington by Eubank & Vinson, while interesting to all readers, is of particular interest to school teachers, who should not be without the Journal. Prof. Rice S. Eubank, formerly of Stanford but now of Hustonville, is senior editor of the splendid publication.

REVS. J. E. WOOD and Wallace Fisher, both colored, were nominated for council in the first ward, says the Danville News. Sambo on Little Britain's council may be a little out of place but Danville has to do something for the colored brother, who is almost if not quite in the majority there.

ACCORDING to immigration statistics more than 20,000 young and blooming Irish maidens landed at New York last year. Every one of them deserves a good husband and when she gets time it's dollars to doughnuts that she will make him a good wife and a model mother of his children.

W. OWEN MCINTYRE has bought the Harrodsburg Herald from Messrs. J. G. Pulliam and D. Mack Hutton. We welcome Mr. McIntyre back into journalism in this section, but regret that those clever gentlemen, Messrs. Pulliam and Hutton, are to quit the tripod.

POLITICAL.

Mayor Dunne's "contract plan" for municipal ownership was rejected by the Chicago city council.

After declaring that Evansville, Ind., is in need of reform, the democrats of that city nominated a municipal ticket. Seventeen young Negroes were arrested in Louisville for stoning a democratic parade and wounding four persons.

A Washington dispatch says that Gov. Folk, of Missouri, is going to make a speech in Louisville for the fusion city ticket.

When the purgation of the registration list began in Louisville the democrats presented the names of 153 Negroes to be stricken from the books.

J. M. Holmes, prohibition nominee for mayor of Owensboro, who has been dumb for over three years, has recovered his power of speech and has accepted the nomination.

The Catlettsburg Daily Press indorses a plan for Congress to provide a president's private car that the chief executive may act independent of influences brought about by courtesies extended.

Charles E. Hughes has declined the republican nomination for mayor of New York City. Mr. Hughes says it is imperative that he should continue his work with the Legislative Insurance Investigating Committee and that he should remain entirely untrammelled.

The republican Senatorial district committee, composed of J. M. Graves, of Woodford; W. L. Buford, of Jessamine, and J. W. Sinclair, of Scott county, met at Versailles and nominated Judge James R. Fennell, of Georgetown, as the republican candidate for State Senator.

In an interview Congressman Swager Sherley declares that the Filipinos will not be able to govern themselves for several generations. The Panama Canal Commission has rescinded the contract with J. E. Markel, of Omaha, for feeding and caring for the employees on the canal. The contract was to run five years, and involved about $50,000,000.

Here and There.

Thousands of peasants in Korea are threatened with starvation. A Jeffersonville, Ind., girl issued the license for her own marriage.

The United States is now turning out over 25,000 automobiles a year. Kentucky's quarantine against all points in the South has been lifted.

Eliza Beazley, a Lancaster Negress, was given 600 days in jail for selling liquor.

Gold shipments from the Yukon territory for the season of 1905, just closed, will run close to $6,000,000.

A fine vein of lead has been discovered on farms of C. N. Stone and Robert Harper, near Ewing, Fleming county. W. B. Burton, of Lancaster, sold to Wiggins & Washington, of North Carolina, 46 mules at $125 and 21 horses at $125 to $200.

The Central Kentucky Natural Gas Company was incorporated at Lexington, with a capital of $1,500,000. The plan is to pipe gas from Menefee county.

Gen. H. C. Corbin has censured Minister Rockhill, at Pekin, for social delinquency in not arranging a proper reception at Pekin for Miss Roosevelt and her party.

Because the new law providing for a license tax does not mention licenses for insurance companies, Louisville may be compelled to pay back to the companies $60,000 already collected.

Frank Leayell, colored, who attempted to force his way into the home of Miss Bright Burrus, near Elkton, Saturday night, was found yesterday swinging to a tree near the scene.

M. J. Winn, Joseph L. Rhinock and Campbell Scott have gone to New York and will probably organize a mammoth company to disseminate racing news, a business which pays $6,000,000 a year.

J. W. Morehead and M. D. Maines, of Sistersville, W. Va., have purchased of A. Floyd Byrd, of Winchester, and J. H. Stamper, of Campton, their gas and oil holdings in Wolfe county for $48,050.

President J. R. Hegeman, of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, has reached Victoria, B. C., en route home from Japan. He says he will gladly testify before the Legislative Investigating Committee.

One of the largest purchases of export cattle was made at Mt. Sterling Saturday, when C. C. McDonald purchased of Waller Sharp and B. T. Wright 380 head of cattle, averaging 1,500 pounds, at $4.50 per hundred.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. W. J. Dodge, of Jackson, Breathitt county, will preach at the Christian church Sunday morning.

Eld. Geo. Mills, of Hustonville, is conducting a very interesting meeting at the Christian church at Liberty.

Rev. O. M. Huey will fill his pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday at 11 A. M. and 7:15 P. M. Morning subject: "The Christian, the Salt of the Earth." Evening: "Look Unto Me all ye Ends of the Earth and be Saved."

Could Not be Better.

The uniform success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has won for it a wide reputation and many people throughout the country will agree with Mr. Chas. W. Mattison, of Millford, Va., who says: "It works like magic, and is the best preparation I know of. It couldn't be any better." He had a serious attack of dysentery and was advised to try a bottle of this remedy, which he did, with the result that immediate relief was obtained. For sale by all druggists.

THE L. & N. will run another $1.75 excursion to Louisville Oct. 22nd. Train leaves Stanford depot at 6:15 A. M. and arrives in Louisville at 10:25 A. M. Returning it leaves Louisville at 6:15 P. M.

COAL.—Let us fill your coal house with good coal while the weather is favorable. Quality and prices to suit everybody. J. H. Baughman & Co.

While Preaching A Sermon He Kills A Mouse.

The District Conference of the Methodist church at Hampton, La., was given over to discussion of the adventure of the Rev. Frank M. Sutton, pastor of Terrill, La., who proved himself a hero by betraying no emotion when a mouse ran up his trousers leg while he was in the midst of a sermon.

Much fun was had in discussing the experience, but the presiding elder treated it in a serious light and said the Rev. Sutton had set an example that others might well emulate. He deprecated the levity of Rev. M. L. Williams, who recited a parody on "Dickory, Dickory, Dock."

Mr. Sutton was preaching of the wise and foolish virgins, and had reached a point where his voice was reduced almost to a whisper in an eloquent application of the lesson drawn from the text when he felt something run across his instep. Then he felt a tug and a clawing on his hose. His face blanched but his voice never faltered as he went on with his sermon. He touched the spot where the disturbance had occurred with the toe of his other shoe. Immediately there was a scramble upward inside his trousers' leg. It was plain that it was a mouse.

He grasped the situation quickly. It would have caused a panic among the women in the congregation. He reached his left hand down to the seat of trouble, while his right hand firmly grasped the Bible. His fingers stole upon the mouse, and, with a firm clutch, squeezed it to death. It fell to the floor, and he proceeded with the sermon. Not till the doxology was sung did he venture to look at the victim.

Is well watered, having two never failing wells, cistern, a number of never failing springs; two creeks that afford water the year around; dwelling with 8 rooms, 2 porches, kitchen and cellar, meat house, hen house, 3 rooms, buggy house, stable, 2 rooms, stock barn, 32x60, 12 stalls and basement for cattle, 1 tobacco barn, 11x12 feet, both full of tobacco; 2 tenant houses on farm (new last spring); 3 rooms and porch each. I will also sell 1 phonon, 1 buggy, 1 spring wagon, and 2 mules, such as binders, mowers, plows, &c. 15 hemp brakes, 1 sorghum mill, some household furniture.

Sale to begin promptly at 10 o'clock A. M. Wednesday, Oct. 25, 1905. A. W. SMITH,

T. D. English, Auct.

PUBLIC SALE.

As administrator of the estate of Mrs. Phoebe Jane Tudor, dec'd, I will offer for sale to the highest and best bidder the following described property on SATURDAY, OCT. 28TH.

A certain tract of land, best known as the McClary farm, containing about 100 acres, situated in Lincoln county and bordering on Dix River. Said farm is situated about midway between Lancaster and Stanford, about 5 miles from either place. Said tract of land is very fertile, in a high state of cultivation and excellent in every way for farming purposes; all bottom land. Well watered and fenced, good house, barn and all necessary outbuildings. Any one desiring to see said farm can call on B. B. Tudor, who resides on the place. I will also offer for sale at the same time and place the following property: 1 thoroughbred Holstein cow and calf, 1 good Jersey cow and calf, 2 yearling steers, 5 fat hogs, 1 full bred Berkshire sow and pigs. Land will be sold on the following terms: Half of the purchase money due, payable Dec. 31, 1907; balance on 12 months' time. Purchaser will be required to execute note with approved security, bearing a legal interest from Jan. 1, 1906. Lien retained on land until all of purchase money is paid. Terms for sale of stock made known on day of sale. W. L. H. SMITH, Adm'r. A. M. Bourie, Auctioneer.

Do You Want a

Home?

If so, we can furnish you one, any kind you want. We have for sale a great variety of farms, dwelling houses, business houses and business propositions.

If You Want a Farm

write us what kind of a place you are looking for, what size, what improvements, where located, how much you are willing to invest and any other pertinent information. We have farms of all sizes, character and price, and we are certain to interest you if you are on the market. A postal card will bring you one of our printed lists.

Stanford, Kentucky.

Be kind enough to remit us the amount of your dues at this office.

CHILDREN'S SHOES.

The Godman lines are made with a solid leather counter, in sole, outer sole. They cost for sizes 5 to 8, 50c and 75c. Same in Navy Cut, 75c. Same in Box Cut, 90c. All the above in sizes 8½ to 11½ at 90c to $1.50. Same in 12 to 2 at $1 to $1.75. Nothing is "just as good" as leather. There is not an ounce of shoddy in Godman Shoes.

Godman School Shoes.

Should have been here a month ago but have just come. Of course we can't make the factories give our order special service as they sell so many goods they can't play any favorites and we have to wait our turn. This delay is forgiven and forgotten as we believe they were just making them better, if possible. These goods are acknowledged by the trade to be the best goods made for the money but they have outdone themselves on the new fall shoes. Come in and let us show you.

Little Folk's Shoes.

Parents should be careful to get the right shape shoes for little folks as the wrong shoe at the beginning often causes foot annoyance for life. The Zeigler's foot trainers are the right shape and the workmanship is the best. Buy your infant's and children's shoes of us and get the best looking, best wearing, most comfortable shoe made.

PEARSON.—Mr. Isaac Pearson, well-known in this county, died at Harrodsburg from the effects of a surgical operation. He leaves a widow and four children—Mrs. Hugh P. Cooper, of Lebanon; John Pearson, of Chicago, and Charles and Clarence Pearson, of Harrodsburg.

OUR good friend, Mr. James C. Reid, of the West End, sent us the finest Berkshire-Poland China pig the other day that mortal man ever saw. The absence of more local news this issue may be due to the fact that we have taken up too much time looking at our highly-prized present.

IN sending money for his I. J. another year, Mr. W. Scott McGuire, of Norman, O. T., says: "We greatly enjoy the paper. It is usually read by the older ones and then on down to the youngest." As Mr. McGuire has an even dozen children there can't be much news left when the 12th member's time comes to read.

THE republican county committee has been called to meet to-morrow.

BARNETT. Judge Willis Barnett, aged about 70, died at his home at Howland yesterday afternoon after a long illness of a complication of troubles. He is survived by a wife and several grown children. The hour of burial had not been fixed when we went to press. Mr. Barnett was a kind-hearted, clever man and his many friends are saddened by his taking away.

THE lengthy call on Mr. J. H. Swope to become a candidate for sheriff will make the republicans nominate him or some other lamb for sacrifice. It is readily apparent that the republican county committee does not want Mr. Swope to make the race but we believe he will compel the bosses to do something. Meantime let the democrats put in every hour's work possible and take no notice of the split in republican ranks. Make the democratic majority so decisive that no republican will have the temerity to ask for office again in years.

"Traveling in two Pullman cars, arrived here Sunday, and Monday evening gave a performance of Rip Van Winkle. The acting was above the average of that found in Western shows. Frank Bosworth in the character of Rip, and Ida Lawrence, as Gretchen, deserve special mention. The Specialties were good. The company has 30 people, all ladies and gentlemen, and the very large audience at Jamestown will doubtless be pleased to see them again."—Jamestown, N. D., April 5th, 1905. At Walton's Opera House, Stanford, Saturday, Oct. 21.

MATRIMONIAL.

Frederick Schurch, a bridegroom of only two days, committed suicide in Louisville.

Under the new California marriage certificate law the couple must swear that they are not insane.

Robert C. Bottom and Miss Nellie Hobbs, the latter of Preachersville, were married here Wednesday by Rev. P. J. Ross.

AFTER a fellow has bought candy and flowers for a girl a whole year and has taken her to the theatre once a week, and still finds that he has enough left for his lunches, he feels that he can afford to get married.

Anna M. F. Biller, of Louisville, daughter of Prof. Jos. B. Biller, claims Cloyd J. Brotherton, of Lima, O., for her husband. He repudiates her, but the records of Oldham county at Lagrange, bear her out and show that the marriage took place there Aug. 7, last.

Joe Berry, aged 17, and Mattie Chambers, 14, the former from Marion and the latter Boyle, applied Monday afternoon to County Clerk Nichols for license to wed. Upon the proper authority it was issued, and the youthful couple went on their way rejoicing.—Advocate.

Miss Fruzze Allison has broken her engagement to wed Richard Henstep. It is rumored that she was only marrying Richard for his money, but he spent it Saturday night, and Madam Rumor announces that Miss Fruzze backed out. Richard was so disappointed he had a chill.—Hogwallow Kentuckian.

Mr. Jesse D. Wenren, the well-known insurance agent of this place, was married at Lancaster Wednesday to Miss Nellie Dillion, the pretty daughter of Mrs. Lizzie Dillion, of that place. The marriage was a quiet affair, only a few of the most intimate friends of the happy pair being present. Mr. Wenren and Miss Dillion had been sweethearts for several years and while it was generally conceded that they would marry, the announcement that the knot had been tied caused some surprise here, as even Mr. Wenren's closest friends had not been made aware of his intentions. The groom is a clever young man and has been very successful in his chosen line, that of insurance. He is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Wenren and has many friends here and in adjoining counties. The bride is an exceedingly lovable young woman, accomplished and very popular. She has frequently visited relatives here and has made friends of all with whom she came in contact. We are told that Mr. and Mrs. Wenren will make their home in Lancaster but hope they will decide that Stanford is not only a better town but offers more inducements to young men.

MR. J. M. CARTER, of the McCormack's section, is building a home on the site of the one burned several months ago. W. A. Reynolds, manager of the Junction City Lumber Co., is furnishing the lumber.

Great Closing-Out Sale.

We have rented a business house, now nearing completion, in Corbin, Ky. which we expect to occupy at an early date. Rather than move any stock from this place, we have decided to close our Entire Line of Merchandise at a sacrifice. This stock consists of not only the Cream of Dry Goods, such as Silks, Satins, Fine Woolens, Waistings, Fine Table Damasks, Underwear, Hosiery, Outings, Etc., Etc., but also contains the largest assortment of hand-painted Japanese, China and Brice-a-brac Novelties ever shown in this section. We anticipated a heavy Holiday Trade and bought very largely of this line. These goods have just arrived fresh from Japan, and will go on sale at once. In addition to the above we have a 5c and 10c department that is now loaded with good, useful money savers. This will be our last opportunity to supply the wants of our friends and customers and we deem it necessary to further remind you of the character of merchandise you now have an opportunity to purchase at sacrifice.

Owing to the short stay we have in your midst we are compelled to make this Strictly A Spot Cash Sale to One and All, and we ask those who have already made little tickets to please settle.
